JUDGE:

RE: Speech Invitation
Ninth Circuit Judicial Conference
18 August 1987

Judge Clifford Wallace of the Ninth Circuit has invited you to address the Ninth Circuit Conference in Hawaii on Tuesday, 18 August. You spoke to this group last in July, 1983.

Since your schedule is indefinite for that period of time, I believe that you should decline this invitation.

NOTE TO: William M. Baker
Director, Public Affairs

STAT THROUGH: [redacted]
Deputy Director, Public Affairs

STAT FROM: [redacted]

SUBJECT: Speech Request for Judge Webster from Ninth Circuit Conference
Hawaii, 18 August 1987

STAT According to [redacted] the Ninth Circuit Conference request for Judge Webster to speak came in by a phone call from Judge Clifford Wallace of STAT the Ninth Circuit. Since the Ninth Circuit's program went to press last week,
STAT [redacted] believes that the Conference was not expecting the Judge. After STAT receiving your recommendation [redacted] said that the Judge will do a personal note or the office (Director's Office) will make a phone call in response.
